TechSource Honored as one of the Fastest Growing Companies in New Mexico

Los Alamos, NM. TechSource, Inc. is honored to be a 2016 New Mexico's Flying 40 awardee. This is the 4th time that TechSource has received this distinction. The New Mexico Flying 40 Awards annually honors the 40 fastest growing and highest revenue generating, technology-based companies headquartered in the state of New Mexico. The Flying 40 awards are sponsored by the Albuquerque Journal, KPMG LLP; New Mexico Bank & Trust; Technology Ventures Corporation; the Sandia Science and Technology Park Development Corporation; and the University of New Mexico.

In response to receiving this prestigious honor, TechSource CEO V. Brian D'Andrea stated, "We are proud of the success that TechSource has had to date and are honored to again receive this recognition. Our employees' exceptional abilities and commitment to providing unmatched expert advice continues to open doors for us. We are grateful to be named one of New Mexico's fastest growing companies, and we recognize this is only possible because of our people and their outstanding work and commitment to doing their best everyday. Their dedication drives our success and ensures that all of our clients see tremendous value and consider us essential to their success."

TechSource is a leading high-technology science and engineering small business with recognized expertise in accelerator physics, the nuclear sciences, engineering, systems integration, and program and project management. TechSource provides expert technical and management services to organizations responsible for developing, implementing, operating, and managing high-technology programs nationwide. Our uniquely talented and experienced people provide clients decades of hands on experience for issues ranging from national policy decisions to local test bench applications.
